POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
Seasonal Assistants (1) Port Graham Hatchery

Updated 6.27.18

Closing date: Applications will be accepted until all positions are filled.

Cook Inlet Aquaculture Association (CIAA) has one (1) opening for a Seasonal Assistant at Port Graham Hatchery. This is a remote site located in an Alaska village, accessible by air or water. Housing and food is available for those employees who do not live in Port Graham.

This position is expected to start and end as follows: August 20, 2018 through October 1, 2018.

Job description:

This is a full-time, temporary, non-exempt position. Under the direction of the Hatchery Manager, the Seasonal Assistant position will assist with pink salmon broodstock collection, egg takes, and incubation as well as maintenance of the hatchery and its equipment.

Qualifications:

Must be able to live in remote locations, work outdoors in inclement weather and in harmony with fellow employees, operate fishery and water quality sampling gear, and have a working knowledge of basic construction techniques. The use of hand tools, outboard motor and small skiff operation, and outdoor skills are required. Familiarity with sampling and data recording techniques is desirable. Requires the ability to lift, carry, push or pull up to 50 lbs. Must be willing to work long hours. Current CPR and wilderness first aid certifications are required. If you believe you meet the qualifications and you are looking for a fun, challenging, and rewarding job in a stunning location in Alaska, then CIAA encourages you to apply.

Compensation:

$13.00 per hour, overtime eligible. Returning seasonal assistants may be eligible for a pay increase depending upon prior length of service with CIAA. There are no holiday, vacation, or medical leave benefits.
